

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Product Name: Birch Faced WBP Plywood

Cabinet grade birch plywood production

Birch faced WBP plywood is a trusted plywood board that is common in home usage, and has a wide variety of usages such as cabinet, furniture, floors, walls, etc. It is produced by multiple layers of thin veneer wood, together using grades of exterior WBP glue and then compressed. Birch faced WBP plywood board has a super quality requirement as standard. Other uses include joinery and milling procedures.

Baltic birch plywood sizes and thickness

Dimensions	2440 × 1220 Mm
Thickness	18 Mm

Birch Faced WBP Plywood Features

- High quality finish
- Resistant to cracking, twisting and warping
- Reduced splitting when screwing or nailing
- Water and Boil Proof (WBP)
- Easily cut with handsaw or electric drill

Birch hardwood plywood suppliers- Yueshan

Yueshan has wealthy industry experience with several decade, we are known as one of the leading timber manufacturers, exporters and suppliers of high quality plywood, WBP plywood, waterproof plywood, fireproof plywood, melamine plywood, melamine MDF, melamine Particle board, UV board, birch veneers, etc. These products are produced by our experienced and skilled woodworking. Moreover, each one of these products are quality examined by quality inspector to guarantee we don't have the defective product to customer around the world.

Our team is the driving force of organization and has helped all of us in garnering an enormous client base around the world. Each staff of Yueshan focus on offering a personalized selection of superior products in compliance with the international standards. So we provide regular training to them to be able to improve their knowledge and skills. Due to the hard work and dedication of our team, we're able to the majority requirements of our customers within the stipulated time frame.